

Florida First Detector Training Workshop

Sumter County Extension Office

Wednesday, May 31, 2017

Final Agenda

Welcome Bill Lester, Hernando County Cooperative Extension Jim Davis, Sumter County Cooperative Extension	10:00 AM-10:05 AM
Introduction Amanda Hodges, University of Florida	10:05am-10:10am
Pre-workshop Surveys	10:10am-10:30am
Pests and Pathways Amanda Hodges, University of Florida	10:30am-10:40am
Palm weevils Cory Penca, University of Florida	10:40am-10:55am
Scale and Mealybug Insects on Palm Hands-on Demonstration of Palm Scale and Mealybug LUCID® field key Amanda Hodges, University of Florida Lyle Buss, University of Florida	10:55am-11:15pm
Common Regional Problems of Palms Jim Davis, Sumter County Extension	11:15am-11:30am
Regulatory Diagnostic Issues and Perspectives with Palms David Davidson and Jodi Hansen, FDACS-DPI	11:30am-11:40am
Palm Diseases-Current Issues and Detection Strategies Carrie Harmon, University of Florida	11:40am-12:00pm
Lunch	12:00pm-12:45pm

Hands-on Review of Palm Pest and Pathogen Content	12:45pm-1:15pm
Sugarcane Mosaic Virus Carrie Harmon, University of Florida	1:15pm-1:25pm
Redbay Ambrosia Beetle and Laurel Wilt Bill Lester, Hernando County Cooperative Extension	1:25pm-1:40pm
Current Eradication Programs Giant African Land Snail and New World Screwworm Leroy Whilby, FDACS-DPI	1:40pm-2:00pm
Oak Pests and Pathogens, and Protect U.S. Informational Resources Leroy Whilby, FDACS-DPI	2:00pm-2:15pm
Collaborating Agencies and their Roles Sage Thompson, University of Florida	2:15pm-2:25pm
Sample submission, arthropod and disease samples Lyle Buss, University of Florida	2:25pm-2:45pm
Conclusion and Post-Workshop Survey Amanda Hodges, University of Florida	2:45pm-3:00pm