

Catch It Before They Kill It!
Florida First Detector Training Workshop
Washington County Extension Office
February 16, 2018

Agenda

Welcome Matthew Orwat, Washington County Cooperative Extension	8:30am-8:35am
Introduction Amanda Hodges, University of Florida	8:35am-8:40am
Pre-workshop Surveys	8:40am-9:00am
True bugs in Vegetables-Identification and Management Amanda Hodges and Ploy Kurdmongkoltham, University of Florida	9:00am-10:15am
Cowpea Curculio Ploy Kurdmongkoltham and Amanda Hodges, University of Florida	10:15am-10:30pm
Break	10:30am-10:45am
Whitefly Management Matthew Orwat, Washington County Extension	10:45am-11:10am
Importance of Invasive Species to North Florida Vegetable Production Amanda Hodges, University of Florida	11:10am-11:30am
Invasive Stink Bugs and Related True Bugs Brown Marmorated Stink Bug, Bagrada Bug, and Kudzu Bug Amanda Hodges, University of Florida	11:30am-11:50pm
Lunch	11:50pm-12:30pm
Tomato leafminer Tuta absoluta Brad Danner, FDACS-DPI Survey Specialist	12:30m-12:45pm

Old World bollworm and Exotic Spodoptera Pests Brad Danner, FDACS-DPI Survey Specialist	12:45pm-1:05pm
Common Vegetable Plant Diseases in the Florida Panhandle Sanju Kunwar, University of Florida	1:05pm-1:35pm
Pest and Pathogen Walk	1:35pm-2:05pm
CAPS Exotic Corn Diseases of Concern Brad Danner, FDACS-DPI Survey Specialist	2:05pm-2:35pm
Sample Submission, Arthropod and Disease samples Ploy Kurdmongkoltham and Amanda Hodges, University of Florida	2:35pm-2:50pm
Conclusion and Post-Workshop Survey Amanda Hodges, University of Florida	2:50pm-3:15pm